Get Connected with the Resources You Need!

What is an Aging and Disability Resource Center (ADRC)?

- The community's one-stop access point for information and services to help older Delawareans, adults with physical disabilities, and caregivers find the resources they need.
- A visible and trusted place in the community where you can get information and counseling on all available long-term support options.
- A single point of entry to public long-term support services that enables people to make informed decisions and provides streamlined access to services.
- A partnership between agencies to assist consumers and provide follow-up to ensure access to services.

The Delaware ADRC can help you...

- Learn more about available resources.
- Decide what services would be best for you.
- Find the services that you need.
