How to Use This Guide

The Guide to Services for Older Delawareans and Persons with Disabilities contains a wealth of information about services and programs around our state.

The guide is organized into numerous sections, each of which provides information on a specific subject, such as a type of service or program. Most sections contain a short description of the service and a list of service providers along with their contact information. The sections are presented in alphabetical order, starting with Accessibility and ending with Volunteerism. A full list of subjects can be found in the Table of Contents at the beginning of the guide.

To find information about a specific service provider or resource, such as a senior center or a home care agency, you can look in the Index at the end of the guide. The index lists the organizations and resources included in the guide and the page number(s) where you can find information about them.

The Guide to Services is available in print format and on the web. The web version is formatted for easy navigation. Just follow the links next to the guide to visit the various sections. An advantage of the web version is that you can adjust the size of the font to suit your needs.

To access the web version of the guide, visit www.dhss.delaware.gov/dsaapd.

You can also visit the Delaware Aging and Disabilities Resource Center (ADRC) website at www.DelawareADRC.com to get a copy of the guide and use the Service Search feature of the site to learn about services in your county.

10 Things You Need to Know about the Americans with Disabilities Act (ADA)

1. ADA Background

On July 26, 1990, this landmark legislation was signed into law by President George H. W. Bush. The ADA gives civil rights protections to individuals with disabilities and guarantees equal opportunity in public accommodations, employment, transportation, state and local government services and telecommunications.

Visit www.law.georgetown.edu/archiveada.

2. Definition of Disability

The ADA, as amended, defines a person with a disability as someone who has a physical or mental impairment that substantially limits one or more major life activities. In general, these include, but are not limited to, caring for oneself, performing manual tasks, seeing, hearing, eating, sleeping, walking, standing, lifting, bending, speaking, breathing, learning, reading, concentrating, thinking, communicating and working.

3. Reasonable Accommodation

A reasonable accommodation is defined as any modification or adjustment to a job or work environment that will enable a qualified applicant or employee with a disability to participate in the application process or to perform essential job functions. Reasonable accommodations assure that a qualified individual with a disability has the same rights and privileges as those without disabilities. For more information, go to www.AskJAN.org.

4. Filing a Complaint

ADA enforcement is a complaint-driven process. Many people are surprised to learn that government officials do not make visits to employers, state and local agencies or businesses to see if they are ADA compliant. However, once someone has filed a formal complaint, various government agencies are responsible for conducting an investigation and taking legal action, if appropriate. If you feel that you have been discriminated against because of your disability, the following resources may be helpful:

- Call the U.S. Department of Justice's (DOJ) toll-free ADA Information Line at (800) 514-0301; TTY (800) 514-0383.
- Visit the National Disability Rights Network website at www.ndrn.org to learn about legal assistance in your state.
- File a complaint with the U.S. Department of Housing and Urban Development at www.hud.gov if you feel you are the victim of housing discrimination.
- Find out how to file a charge of employment discrimination with the U.S. Equal Employment Opportunity Commission at www.eeoc.gov.

5. ADA Materials and Publications

To order free publications, contact the ADA Information Line at (800) 514-0301; TTY (800) 514-0383.

6. DBTACs

Disability and Business Technical Assistance Centers (DBTACs) provide trainings, materials, information and technical assistance on the ADA to people in 10 different regions throughout the United States. DBTACs promote public awareness of the ADA. To contact your regional DBTAC, call (800) 949-4232 or visit www.adata.org.

7. Service Animals

Since March 15, 2011, only dogs that are specially trained to do work or perform tasks for people with disabilities are recognized as service animals under titles II and III of the ADA. Tasks performed by service dogs may include guiding people who are blind, alerting people who are deaf, pulling a wheelchair, reminding people with a mental illness to take prescribed medications and calming people with Post Traumatic Stress Disorder (PTSD). The task a dog has been trained to do must be directly related to the person's disability. Visit www.ada.gov.

8. Voting

Under the ADA, polling places nationwide are required to be physically accessible to people with disabilities for federal elections. When an accessible location is not available, an alternate means of casting a ballot on the day of the election must be offered. Get a Checklist for Polling Places from www.ada.gov.

9. Medical Care

Prior to the ADA, health care professionals had no legal obligation to provide care and could refuse patients with disabilities. Today, medical care providers are required to offer accessible health care facilities and make reasonable modifications to policies, practices and procedures for individuals with disabilities. Read "Access to Medical Care for Individuals with Mobility Disabilities" at www.ada.gov.

10. Guide

www.disability.gov offers many resources about the ADA, including those listed in this guide. The site's Civil Rights section also features information about other laws including the Fair Housing Act; Individuals with Disabilities Education Act; Ticket to Work and Work Incentive Improvement Act; and Voting Accessibility for the Elderly and Handicapped Act. Stay connected to www.disability.gov through Facebook, Twitter and Disability Blog.

DIVISION OF SERVICES FOR AGING AND ADULTS WITH PHYSICAL DISABILITIES

Caregiving and Respite Resources

LISTED IN THIS SECTION

Organizations that offer Caregiver Support Services and Support for Grandparents raising others children

The Division of Services for Aging and Adults with Physical Disabilities' Caregiver program supports nine staffed Caregiver Resource Centers located throughout Delaware in senior centers and at Easter Seals in New Castle and Georgetown, Delaware. Assistive Technology Resource information is available at the Easter Seals Caregiver Resource Centers. The centers are staffed on a part-time basis. Materials can be reviewed at the centers or checked out for home use.

The Caregiver Resource Centers are the community's access point for information on a variety of caregiving issues. The coordinators at each center understand the challenges that caregivers face. They can provide information, assistance and support that can be the most helpful in a caregiver's individual situation. They will help caregivers navigate the array of services available, find solutions to individualized concerns and make appropriate referrals. Many Caregiver Resource Centers also have support groups.

Organizations and companies that offer, either with or without charge, Case Management Services and Options Counseling

Case management is a method of providing services whereby a professional assesses the needs of the client and the client's family, when appropriate, and arranges, coordinates, monitors, evaluates and advocates for a package of multiple services, whether medical or non-medical, to meet the specific client's complex needs. The client and his/her family are the primary decision-makers in this process.

Organizations and facilities that offer Respite Services (a short break for caregivers) in your home or at their facility

Respite means rest and relief to families that care for an older person or a person with a disability of any age. Respite services can be provided in the home or in an institutional setting. Respite services in the home are provided by licensed home health agencies or even by individuals you select and train. The respite worker remains with the person for a specified period of time, performing daily tasks as needed. Nursing homes, assisted living facilities and hospitals may also make accommodations for overnight respite periods.

Adult Day Care, a program for older persons, adults with disabilities and persons with Alzheimer's disease, provides supervised therapeutic, recreational and social activities for individuals who do not require 24-hour institutional care, but cannot live independently due to physical or mental challenges.

Caregiving and Respite Resources

Most adult day care programs provide the following services:

- Food service
- Medical care (emergency treatment)
- Nursing care (monitoring conditions, administering medications)
- Recreational activities
- Social work services (counseling, linkage with other services)
- Support groups
- Therapy (physical, speech, occupational, reality orientation)
- Transportation

Go to www.nadsa.org or call (877) 745-1440 for a site visit checklist to use when you visit adult day care programs.

Organizations that offer financial assistance for respite services:

Contact the Delaware Lifespan Respite Care Network at (302) 221-2087 or (800) 677-3800 or www.delrespite.com for possible respite options and financial assistance. The Network will assist you in identifying various respite options that might work for you and offers respite vouchers for up to $500 annually for eligible families and up to $250 annually for grandparents raising others' children.

Alzheimer's Respite Care Financial Assistance Program

This program offers financial assistance grants to caregivers to provide respite care for diagnosed persons with Alzheimer's. Eligibility is determined by need and financial criteria.

Crime Prevention and Victim Assistance

Resources for victims of crimes appear on page 48.

Adults Victims Services Program

Provides follow-up services as needed to crime victims age 50 and over who are victims of a variety of crimes including robbery, destruction of property, verbal assault, purse snatching, domestic violence or sexual abuse. Services offered include accessing medical help and counseling, accompaniment to court and referrals to other social services.

Delaware Crime Stoppers

Offers a means by which Delawareans may provide, at no personal risk, information on serious unsolved crimes in the community. Crime Stoppers works with the police by providing leads that are verified and investigated. When the investigation results in an arrest and an indictment, the caller may be eligible for a reward up to $1,000.

Anonymity is assured every caller. To provide information, call (800) TIP-3333.

Department of Justice – Victim/Witness Services Unit

Provides information on criminal justice procedures, notification of case status information, support counseling and accompaniment to many victims and witnesses in pending criminal cases. As an advocate for the victim, the program assists in replacing stolen identification cards, property return, employer intercession, completing Victim Loss Statements and filing Violent Crimes Compensation Board claims. Referrals to community resources may be offered. The Rape Response Unit provides social work services for pending sexual offense cases.

(800) 870-1790

www.attorneygeneral.delaware.gov

Police Victims Assistance Program

Anyone who has been the victim of a crime can call the Police Based Victims Assistance Programs. A victim advocate will provide crisis intervention and information and make referrals to social and private agencies for anyone who has experienced domestic violence or disputes; sexual assault; child abuse or neglect; or elder abuse or neglect. Victim advocates also work with families who have suffered a loss due to homicide, suicide or fatal crashes or sudden deaths. The advocates will help victims and their families understand the criminal justice system.

Victims' Compensation Assistance Program

Compensates innocent victims of violent crimes, paying for costs that are not covered by insurance such as Medicare, Medicaid or private insurance.

The program compensates for net lost income and expenses incurred due to personal injury, disfigurement disability or mental suffering. Medical costs are paid directly. There is no compensation for loss of personal property. The program also addresses community education, providing speakers on the compensation program and violent crime.

If you have been the victim of a violent crime (and the crime has been reported to the police), you may file a claim form with the Victims' Compensation Assistance Program. If you are unable to visit the office, an investigator can come to your home or the hospital.

Emergency Preparedness

Disasters can strike quickly and without warning. They can force your family to be confined to or evacuated from your home. Families should prepare for disasters in advance. Disasters that may occur include, but are not limited to, natural hazards and weather-related incidents, as well as technological and human related disasters, such as chemical spills, biological hazards and radiological releases from power plants.

If you or someone close to you has a disability, you may need to take additional steps to protect yourself and your family in an emergency.

DISASTER READINESS PLANNING GUIDE

To obtain this guide, which you can complete for a person with disabilities, call (800) 223-9074.

Agencies listed below can help you as you plan your response for any emergency. During the actual emergency event, contact your local agencies for specific issues. If you have a medical emergency during a disaster, call 911.

Food Supplement Program

Food Supplement Program is a program that enables low-income families to buy a variety of food that is the basis for better nutrition. Benefits are issued electronically to the family's Delaware Food First card each month. The Food First Card is similar to a bank debit card. The Food Supplement Program recipient uses this card at local grocery stores to buy food.

Eligibility

Eligibility for this service is based on factors such as who lives and eats together and your income. You must be a U.S. Citizen or an eligible alien to qualify. Individuals who receive TANF, GA or Supplemental Security Income (SSI) do not need to meet an income test in order to receive Food benefits. The maximum gross monthly income limit for most other individuals is set at 200% of the Federal Poverty Level (FPL). There is no resource test.

Grandparents and Relative Caregivers Raising Others' Children

State Services for Grandparents and Relative Caregivers Raising Others' Children

The following support services are available to grandparents and relative caregivers if they meet eligibility requirements.

Child Care (Also known as Purchase of Care)

The purpose of the Division of Social Services Purchase of Care childcare program is to provide support to families who need childcare but who cannot pay for all or part of the cost. This service is available to parents, grandparents or other related adults responsible for the child's care. You may get help with day care if you are working full-time or part-time and your income is low enough. If eligible, you will choose among the licensed childcare centers and childcare family or group homes that accept Purchase of Care reimbursement rates. You may also create your own self-arranged childcare, with the help of your social worker. For more information or to apply, contact a Division of Social Services office.

Child Support

The Delaware Division of Child Support Services is the state agency that helps custodial parents and caregivers to establish paternity and obtain child support from obligated parents. Services are free to those parents and caregivers who receive Temporary Aid to Needy Families (TANF) or Medicaid.

For more information, in New Castle County call: (302) 577-7171; in Kent County call: (302) 739-8299; and in Sussex County call: (302) 856-5386.
www.dhss.delaware.gov/dcse

Delaware Healthy Children Program

This is a health insurance program for children. If you have not been able to afford medical insurance for your child and do not qualify for Medicaid, you may purchase very low cost medical insurance through the state of Delaware. For more information or to apply, please contact your local Division of Social Services office or call (800) 996-9969.

The Delaware State Housing Authority (DSHA)

Community Relations staff can provide you with a list of affordable housing in your area. They will also provide referral information for many services including assistance for one-time rental help, security deposit help or help with energy bills. Call the Delaware State Housing Authority's Community Relations staff located in Dover at (888) 363-8808, or visit their website at www.destatehousing.com or call the Delaware Helpline at 211 or (800) 464-4357. DSHA also has Section 8 Housing Choice Vouchers as well as other affordable rental and homeownership programs.

General Assistance (GA)

General Assistance (GA) is cash payment that can be used for an unemployable adult, or used for people caring for unrelated children. Only assets and income of the child are considered when you apply for GA. For more information or to apply, please contact a Division of Social Services office.

Help Paying Your Medicare Premium

Low-income Medicare beneficiaries may be eligible for help with paying all or some of their Medicare premium and, in some cases, payment of Medicare co-insurance and deductibles.

For more information or to apply, contact a Division of Medicaid and Medical Assistance office.

Kinship Care Program

The purpose of the Kinship Care Program is to assist caregivers during the 180-day transition period when a child initially moves into the nonparent caregiver's home. The program assists caregivers in meeting the child's immediate need for clothing, shelter, health and educational supplies. For more information, contact the Delaware Helpline at 211 or (800) 464-4357 or a State Service Center. The Delaware General Assembly provides funding for the Kinship Care Program, and it is limited to available state funds.

Medicaid

Medicaid is medical insurance that pays for doctors' visits (including well-child visits), in-patient and out-patient hospital services, lab tests, behavioral health services, prescription medicines, eye exams, glasses, dental care for children and over-the-counter medicines prescribed by your doctor. Eligibility for Medicaid is determined by income. Almost any child whose parent is not in the home and who has little or no income of his or her own can get Medicaid health insurance coverage. Low-income children can get Medicaid even if they cannot get Temporary Aid for Needy Families (TANF) or the Supplemental Nutrition Assistance Program (SNAP).

If you or the child is eligible, Medicaid may begin immediately. For more information or to apply, contact your local Division of Social Services office.

Mental Health Services for Children

Behavioral health services (substance abuse and mental health treatment) are available for all children in Delaware. Private insurance and Medicaid providers can be located by calling the number on the insurance card. The Division of Prevention and Behavioral Health Services (DPBHS) can serve uninsured children or those needing more than 30 units of outpatient services from Medicaid.

DPBHS provides a range of mental health and substance abuse treatment programs statewide beyond outpatient services, including a 24-hour crisis service. Call (302) 633-2600.

All DPBHS referrals are voluntary and require parents or guardians to provide written consent. The Caregivers' Medical Authorization Law allows primary caretakers to provide this consent when a parent is unavailable. For further information, contact DPBHS at (302) 633-2600.

Public Housing

Public housing in Delaware is provided by several different agencies, operating with different regulations. The waiting period for housing varies greatly from one agency to the other. You will need to meet income eligibility requirements. You may also be required to have custody of the child you are raising, even if he or she is a relative.

Supplemental Nutrition Assistance Program (SNAP)

The Supplemental Nutrition Assistance Program (SNAP) helps single people and families with little or no income purchase food they need for good health. A SNAP household consists of people who live together and buy food and prepare meals together. Spouses and children under the age of 22 who live with their parents must be included in the SNAP household. The income of all household members counts towards the SNAP income limits and determines how much assistance they get. You may be eligible for the SNAP program even if you cannot get assistance from other programs. For more information or to apply, please contact a Division of Social Services office.

Temporary Assistance for Needy Families (TANF)

Temporary Aid for Needy Families (TANF) is one of Delaware's cash assistance programs. You can apply for TANF in three different ways: 1) for yourself; 2) for yourself and the child you are raising; or 3) for the child only. You do not have to have custody or guardianship of the child, but you must be related to him or her. If you are applying for a child-only TANF grant, only assets and income of the child are considered. For more information or to apply, please contact a Division of Social Services office.

Home Health Care and Personal Assistance

FEELING AT HOME WITH HOME CARE: CHOOSING THE RIGHT PROVIDER

Home care is a viable and often preferred alternative to long term hospitalization or other institutionalized care. Home care may be recommended for patients with long term health conditions, acute illness, permanent disability or terminal illness. In these cases, there are often a number of services available. The services of nurses, physical therapists, speech therapists, occupational therapists, social workers, dietitians, home health aides, homemakers, chore workers and companions are all usually available through the home care provider.

Your loved one's physician will help you decide what services he or she needs, but choosing the right home care provider takes some time and research.

The first step is to discuss the care recipient's home care needs with his or her physician, hospital discharge planner or case manager. Also, ask for a list of local, licensed home care agencies. If a list is not available, request one from the Delaware Division of Public Health at (800) 942-7373, Office of Health Facilities Licensing and Certification.

The following should also be considered when choosing a home care agency:

- Does the agency provide the services your loved one needs?
- Does the agency provide continuity of care? Will the same professional caregiver or team be involved for the duration of the care plan?
- Are the care recipients and family Caregivers included when the agency develops or changes the care plan?
- When is the agency accessible? Is someone available to assist you and your loved one to answer questions after hours or in an emergency?

- Does the provider have a good reputation and positive track record? Ask for a list of references from local physicians, health care professionals, discharge planners and former clients.
- How long has the agency been in business, serving your community?
- Is the agency licensed (required in many states) and accredited by a healthcare accreditation organization, such as the Joint Commission on the Accreditation of Healthcare Organizations (JCAHO)?
- Does the agency accept Medicare, Medicaid or other public third-party payers? Because each state has its own eligibility requirements, the home health agency may not accept patients covered by Medicaid.
- Is the agency Medicare certified? Only Medicare-certified agencies can provide services covered by Medicare. It is also beneficial to determine if the agency will continue services if Medicare or other reimbursement sources are exhausted.

The agency you choose should be an extension of the physician's original plan of care for the patient. It is essential that the agency and Caregivers work well with the care recipient and the recipient's family and physician. The common goal for everyone involved in the patient's home care services should be a successful recovery.

Home Health Care Agencies, Non-Skilled/Skilled

Home Health Care and Personal Assistance Services Agencies help individuals function as independently as possible in their own homes. Services vary from agency to agency and range from personal care and assistance, companion care, light housekeeping, cooking and transportation to medically oriented skilled care such as dressing changes or physical therapy provided by a licensed professional, and may include live-in help. Medicare will only cover certain costs of services under certain conditions.

If you have a complaint regarding the care you receive from a licensed home health care, personal assistance services or hospice agency, or you would like to review the licensing requirements, please call the Office of Health Facilities Licensing and Certification at (800) 942-7373.

Companion Programs

Companion programs for seniors are designed to provide companionship to older people who are lonely and may not be in contact with family or friends for a variety of reasons. The companion programs listed below include both face-to-face and telephone visitation programs. You may also find fee-based companion services offered by non-skilled home health care agencies.

Telephone Reassurance Programs

Individuals over the age of 60 who are homebound and/or live alone receive a daily phone call at a specific time to find out if they are safe and well, require special assistance or have any problems. The program provides important reassurances and social contact for those who might otherwise be isolated.

Hospice

Hospice is a choice when recovery is no longer possible.

Hospice focuses on care, not cure, ensuring that patients and their families receive the care, comfort and support they need. Pain, symptom management and emotional support are provided in the familiar surroundings of home, regardless of the ability to pay.

See www.hospicefoundation.org.

If you have a complaint regarding the care you receive from a licensed home health care, personal assistance services or hospice agency, or you would like to review the licensing requirements, please call the Office of Health Facilities Licensing and Certification at (800) 942-7373.

Speech to Speech (STS)

STS is a U.S. phone service that enables people with a speech disability to make phone calls with the help of a communicator.

Those who stutter, have cerebral palsy, muscular dystrophy, multiple sclerosis or have speech difficulties after a stroke or brain injury can benefit from STS.

You do not need to have a speech difficulty to make an STS call. You may wish to call someone who has speech difficulties.

CapTel

Captioned Telephone or “CapTel” is a telephone service for persons with hearing loss or speech disabilities so that they can use the phone just like everyone else. It is ideal for people with almost any degree of hearing loss and works like any other telephone with one important addition – it displays every word the caller says throughout the conversation.

If a person has problems with speech clarity, it will help the listener to understand the speaker. CapTel phone users can listen to the caller and can also read the written captions in the CapTel's bright display window. It is a free service that is paid for by a state surcharge on all Delaware customer bills. In Delaware, a person can get further information or apply for CapTel service through the Delaware Relay Service at www.delawarerelay.com/captel.

If you are not eligible for a free telephone, you can purchase a CapTel 840 telephone in Delaware at a reduced price by calling (800) 233-9130 or going to www.CapTel.com. The telephone requires telephone service and high-speed internet access.

Long Term Care Ombudsman Program (DLTCOP)

The DHSS' Long Term Care Ombudsman Program provides impartial fact-finders whose job is to assure that adults in licensed institutions, nursing homes, assisted living, adult foster care homes and those using home- and community-based services receive fair treatment. The Ombudsman seeks to:

- Investigate and resolve complaints made by or on behalf of residents of long term care facilities as well as community based services regarding violations of individual rights.
- Train volunteers and others to participate in the Ombudsman Program.
- Advocate for improving the quality of life for residents of long term care facilities and in the community.
- Provide information and training to residents, families and staff on topics such as patient rights, living wills and patient abuse.

Office of the Public Guardian

In cases where persons appear incapable of managing themselves or their property, this office can provide a legal guardian to assume that responsibility. This would normally occur when an individual is without friends or family or the individual's friends or family are not willing to assume guardianship. A court hearing must occur in order to determine the individual's incapacity and to establish the absence of willing private guardians. Once appointed, the guardian, under the direction of the Court, takes full responsibility for the management of the person, his/her property or both.

Personal Emergency Response Systems (PERS)

The following companies offer installation and monitoring of PERS systems in your home or apartment. There is a one-time cost for installation and monthly costs to maintain the system. By pressing a button on a device worn on your wrist or around your neck, you can signal that you need emergency help and/or assistance from previously identified family members, neighbors or your local 911 response team. Call these companies for more specific information, including costs. There are many more PERS companies listed on the Internet that offer services to Delaware residents.

QUESTIONS TO ASK WHEN CONSIDERING A PERSONAL EMERGENCY RESPONSE SYSTEM

1. What is the response time when you push the button for help?
2. Is there a setup fee?
3. Is customer support available?
4. Is the staff at the response center trained?
5. Does someone monitor the battery life in the device?
6. Is the system a wristband, pendant or other device?
7. Is there a way to try out the system before you commit to the service?
8. Can you get out of a service contract if the person moves out of the service area or dies?
9. Are there any additional costs?
10. Are there any specials I should be aware of?

Vial of Life Kit

New Castle County residents only call (302) 395-8184 for your home kit from the New Castle County Emergency Medical Services Division.

The Vial of Life program is for those who have a chronic illness or take medications on a daily basis. A form is provided on which the participant can list their medical history, medications, significant allergies plus medical service providers. The form is placed in a small medication-sized container labeled Vial of Life and is stored in the refrigerator. A magnetic card is provided to attach to the outside of the refrigerator to indicate that the vial is inside. Although the vial does not require refrigeration, this location has been chosen as it is a nearly universal appliance within the home. Emergency responders can access the vial for critical information when the patient cannot speak for themselves.
