IN DELAWARE, PRACTICING MEDICINE IS NOW MORE REWARDING THAN EVER.

Up to $200,000 in loan repayment is available through the Health Care Provider Loan Repayment Program.

The Delaware Health Care Commission is offering medical education loan repayment grants through the Health Care Provider Loan Repayment Program. Primary care providers who have specific degrees and specialties are eligible. Hospitals and practices also may apply on behalf of their staff clinicians who meet the eligibility criteria. Delaware offers an attractive practice environment, a low cost of living, beaches, tax-free shopping, and a high quality of life.

YOU'RE ELIGIBLE IF YOU:

Have completed graduate education within two years.

Meet degree and specialty criteria.

Agree to practice for two years in an underserved area of Delaware.

Have a J-1 visa or a U.S. citizenship authorization to work in the U.S. for the period of loan repayment.

Have completed a residency program (for advanced-degree practitioners) — students participating in the Delaware Institute of Medical Education and Research (DIMER) as well as participants in Delaware-based residency programs are given priority consideration.

QUALIFYING DEGREES:

- Doctor of Medicine (MD)
- Doctor of Osteopathic Medicine (DO)
- Nurse Practitioner (NP)
- Certified Nurse Midwife (CNM)
- Clinical Nurse Specialist (CNS)
- Physician Assistant (PA)

QUALIFYING SPECIALTIES:

- Adult Medicine
- Dental Health
- Family Medicine (including osteopathic general practice)
- Internal Medicine
- Pediatrics
- Psychiatry / Mental Health
- Geriatrics
- Women's Health (obstetrics and gynecology)

APPLY ONLINE.

The DHCC accepts the HCPLRP three-part application (Part A, Part B, and Part C) on a rolling basis, however, awards are made twice a year in June and December. To be considered for an award, all sections of the application must be complete and submitted to the DHCC before the Cohort dates, March 15 and September 15. To learn more or to apply, visit de.gov/loanrepayment.
