PRIMARY CARE REFORM COLLABORATIVE (PCRC) – UPDATE

- PCRC met on May 13, 2024
- Collaborative voted and agreed on the future cadence of meetings (meet in June and then quarterly starting in September).
- Collaborative reviewed the structure of the PCRC and agreed/voted that the current PCRC structure is the correct structure.
- Collaborative agreed/voted to assemble four subcommittee workgroups. The subcommittees will include 5-7 people in the following: 1) Payment and Attribution, 2) Quality Metrics and Benchmark, 3) Communication, and 4) Practice Model.
- Next PCRC meeting scheduled for July 15, 2024.

PRIMARY CARE REFORM COLLABORATIVE (PCRC) – UPDATE

- The PCRC will work on the following action items:
 - Develop a draft of the annual report for review in September.
 - Consider adding social determinants of health to the primary care model.
 - Review and incorporate Office of Value-Based Health Care Delivery data into primary care spending and affordability standards.
 - Send a follow-up email survey regarding recommendations for restructuring the membership if it is determined that the current membership is not correct.
 - Send a follow-up email survey to PCRC members regarding adding or removing stakeholders and determining the optimal number of people on the PCRC.
 - Consider adding "exclusive strategy" to the title of one of the work groups under payment attribution.

PRIMARY CARE REFORM COLLABORATIVE (PCRC) – UPDATE

- Send a survey to gather feedback on the work groups and their structure.
- Reach out to organizations for volunteer representatives for the work groups and update the list of members.
- Ensure that the work groups are in place and know their priorities by June.
- Determine the best implementation tools and methods for advancing the PCRC strategic priorities and goals.
- Consider customizing the tools to be used and make recommendations for regulatory processes.
- Empower work groups to produce high-level outlines and recommendations for reinforcing the primary care system in Delaware.
- Take a bold stand this year and capitalize on changes in the health care system to collaborate with stakeholders and move in the same direction.
