

eSTAR Time & Attendance System Update--Go Live Date Moving Back ---Sent 10/21/15

Earlier this year we announced the plan to implement a new time and attendance system known as eSTAR (Employee State Time and Attendance Reporting) targeted for January. This start date is being moved back to provide additional time for system testing and configuration. The best estimate is that eSTAR will Go Live at the end of the first quarter 2016. Watch for more details as the timing becomes clearer.
