

ADVANCE HEALTH-CARE DIRECTIVE OF

ADVANCE HEALTH-CARE DIRECTIVE

ABOUT THIS FORM:

This form is a legal document that lets you name another individual or individuals as your “agent(s)” to make health-care decisions for you if you become incapable of making your own decisions. It also allows you to communicate your wishes – ahead of time – regarding your care near the end of life. If desired, you may also make choices about being an organ donor. You can complete all these parts, but each part can stand alone so you do not have to complete every part unless you choose.

IMPORTANT: Your agent will not be asked to make any decisions as long as you are capable and can communicate for yourself. You always have the right to give instructions about your own health care if you are able. However, if you do not write down your wishes about your health care in advance, and if you later become unable to understand, make, or communicate those wishes, they may not be honored because they may remain unknown to others.

HOW YOU CAN USE THIS FORM:

You can use this form if you wish to name someone to make health-care decisions for you in case you cannot make decisions for yourself. This is called giving the person a power of attorney for health care. This person is called your Agent.
